THURSDAY MORNING DEC 4 1862

MISSOURI FOR EMANCIPATION —The result of the election in Missouri is astonishing — The Democrat claims the election of 17 Radical members of the Assembly from St Louis county and a majority in the Legislature sufficient to elect United States Senator and sustain the emancipation policy. In spite of the strong slaveholding counties such as Livingston and Randolph the conservative majorities were large. In the First Congressional District Frank Blair obtained a small majority over Samuel Knox—the Union Emancipation vote being so overwhelming as to render the chances of electing a pro slavery candidate hopeless. Henry T Blow, Radical had 2,000 majority in the Second District. In the Third there was a close race between General Noell of the present House, Union Emancipation candidate and John W Scott Pro slavery Dem[illegible] [illegible] — From the Fourth no returns had been received. In the Fifth or Jefferson City District, Colonel S W McClurg, Radical seemed to have beaten Brigadier General Thomas L Price, the largest slaveholder in the region. From the Sixth District no returns had been received. In the Seventh, Gen Ben Loan Union candidate was ahead. Buchanan county gave him 613 majority, whole four precincts of Andrew county gave him 287 majority. In the Eighth District, William A Hall, Conservative was undoubtedly elected, as was also Major James B Rollins, Conservative in the Ninth District. The probabilities favor a delegation standing five Union Emancipationists to four Pro slavery Democrats—a gain of four for the Administration

RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES —The Journal of St Petersburg, the leading Russian Government organ, has the following friendly word of encouragement

"Russia, it says entertains a lively sympathy for the United States of America, based on mutual friendship and common interests. Their prosperity she deems necessary for the general equilibrium. The maintenance of the Union is the condition of that power and happiness which she desires for the American nation. We are in a position to affirm that the friendly and conciliatory views of the Imperial Cabinet have not undergone the slight est change. On the contrary the events which have taken place, the sad experience of war of its calamities its burdens, its exhausting results, have tended rather to confirm than to weaken their force

PACIFIC RAILROAD —We acknowledge the receipt, by last evening's mail, of copies of "the general railroad laws of California the Pacific Railroad Act of Congress, and the By-Laws of the Central Pacific Railroad of California," also reports of Chief Engineer, Theodore D Judah to the President of the above named Company, containing many interesting facts connected with the construction and general advantages of a Pacific Railroad, which we shall refer to more at length hereafter.

HONORS TO AN AMERICAN —Mr. John E Gowan, who raised the Russian ships sunk at Sebastopol, has been decorated by the Emperor of Russia with the cross of the Order of Saint Vladimir. Victor Emmanuel, King of Italy, has decorated him with the Cross of the Order of Saints Maurice and Lazzaro, and the Sultan of Turkey has conferred upon the Imperial Decoration of Medjidie. The last two were bestowed in recognition of Mr Gowan's services in repairing and protecting the cemeteries of the allied forces in the Crimea

ANOTHER STEAMER —We learn that the timbers for another steamboat are being got out at the mills on the Oregon side of the Columbia below Oak Point. This steamer is intended for the trade between this city and Astoria, and when completed will be equal to any other steamer of the kind on these waters

WANTS MAINE —Mr Locke King, a member of Parliament has lately made a speech, in which he said that if England had gone to war on the Trent affair she would not have rested until she had obtained that which she had a right to namely the State of Maine and the harbor of Portland

John Mitchell is in Richmond. He has two sons now captains in the rebel army one of them wounded. The Richmond Enquirer hopes soon to see John at the head of a brigade "to meet Corcoran or Meagher." They too, we venture to say would be happy to see John Mitchell

The Illinois Grand Division of Sons of Temperance lately passed resolutions approving the emancipation proclamation and demanding the removal of drunken officers from the army

Some of the merchants of Salt Lake City having issued shinplasters for circulation the News warns people not to take them on penalty of sooner or later finding them worthless

Dog skins are said to be worth in San Francisco, $4 50 and upward per dozen, to be made into kid gloves

Subscription books for the Pacific Railroad were opened in Eastern cities on the 5th of November

BUCHANAN'S DEFENSE —The New York Herald [illegible] this [illegible]

W[illegible] [illegible] that the old [illegible] will [illegible] the [illegible] public [illegible] the [illegible] in [illegible] from October 1860 to January 1861 [illegible] then the [illegible] and [illegible] estly and [illegible] General Scott. But [illegible] to give them this—that [illegible] regular [illegible] within any convenient [illegible] all the rest being employed in protecting our Western [illegible] and frontiers against the Indians

But [illegible] the question [illegible] from October 1860 to January 1861 [illegible] were three or four [illegible] Twiggs in Texas [illegible] Why were not they [illegible] those Southern [illegible]

The simple truth is that from the personal [illegible] prejudices of Buchanan [illegible] is [illegible] trembling [illegible] Southern traitors in Congress and in his Cabinet [illegible] was thus poor old, unfortunate man rendered utterly helpless to save the country or himself. An [illegible] of moral courage on his part at the right time would have placed him high aloft alongside of Andrew Jackson [illegible] that [illegible] him now from the condemnation of his contemporaries and posterity. With a selfish degradation of weakness unparalleled in the history of modern nations he [illegible] closed [illegible] his eyes and [illegible] the [illegible] of the day, in order to throw all the burdens of this war upon the Administration elected to succeed him. We presume that General Scott will give him another broadside although [illegible] answer to this [illegible] and [illegible] defense of Buchanan is needed. His position in history is fixed as the [illegible] able failure of any ruler of modern times

LIBERAL VIEWS THE BEST VIEWS —A Maine paper tells a singular story which illustrates the mischief of a too literal construction of the Scriptures. A [illegible] who was at work up near Moosehead Lake had become somewhat interested in religious matters—by what means we know not. He very properly took to reading the Scriptures and one night while reading, his eye came upon the passage, "If thy right hand offend thee cut it off." This passage struck him with peculiar force so much so that he read it over and over again, and dwelt on its meaning. At last by long speculation as to its force, he became morbidly alive to the importance of a literal compliance with the directions of the text. He determined to fulfill its requirements without delay and to that end went deliberately out took up an ax and severed his right hand just below the thumb. Fearing that this was not enough, he struck another blow cutting off the hand at the wrist. But even this did not satisfy him his martyrdom was to be purchased by still another sacrifice. So he cut again taking off the arm nearly half way to the elbow. The last blow, and the profuse bleeding exhausted him, or there is no knowing where he would have stopped. He was discovered shortly after by a companion who stopped the bleeding and procured medical aid, and the poor man's wounded arm was dressed and he himself put in a fair way of recovery to live a singular monument of a most extraordinary freak of religious insanity. What lends interest and weight to the case is that the subject of it was a man of sober industrious and temperate habits

THE BEAUTY OF WOMAN'S ARM —Who has not felt the beauty of a woman's arm—the unspeakable suggestions of tenderness that lie in the dimpled elbow, and all the varied gently lessening curves down to the delicate wrist with its tiniest, almost imperceptible nicks in the firm softness. A woman's arm touched the soul of a great sculptor two thousand years ago so that he wrought an image of it for the Parthenon which moves us still as it clasps lovingly the time worn marble of a headless trunk

The work on the National Treasury Building is progressing rapidly. When finished, it will be one of the most splendid buildings in the country. Every step of its progress is depicted by a photographer, employed for the purpose, and many of the pictures thus produced though intended solely for practical and scientific purposes are really beautiful. When the section of the building now going up is completed, it is proposed to move the State Department fraternity into it, and then the old State Department will be demolished to give place for the northern front of the new edifice

The pastoral letter adopted by the House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church at its recent triennial Convention at New York, was read in most of the Episcopal churches in Baltimore, November 3d, and many secessionists left the churches in disgust during the reading of it. Many others, who anticipated that it would be read absented themselves from public worship

When the present Emperor of Russia was a young man he met, according to agreement, a certain lady who was to be, if all things were harmonious, his wife. He admired her excessively but did not marry her. There was an objection: she was not careful in cleansing her finger nails

Washington letters say the President looks careworn and very much troubled, He is anxious for the army to move on but he does not, after what has occurred in the past desire to force his generals to fight before they say they are ready

A man used to be terribly bitten by musquitoes until he got married, when the blood thirsty villains found out that his wife was much the sweetest, and he hasn't been troubled since

By report of Provost Marshal French, 61 382 persons had taken the oath of allegiance and 6,530 the alien oath. The United States had distributed 18 [illegible] pounds of provisions to 9 797 families

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

CITY COUNCIL.—Met last evening at the usual hour. Present: Messrs. Dennison, Halleck, Holmes, Silvers and President.

Petition of E. Gallagher, for license to sell liquors, granted.

Petition of P. Moore, for refunding license paid, referred to Committee on Accounts and Current Expenses.

Petition of Wagner, Simms and Eagan, for indemnity for loss in consequence of the Council not complying with agreement with them for the finishing Engine House No. 1, on motion of Mr. Halleck indefinitely postponed.

Resignation of Mr. Walling was read; motion to accept—lost.

Resignation of H. Boyd as Clerk of the Board of Common Council. read, and on motion of Mr. Halleck, accepted, to take effect after the adjournment of the present session.

Committee on Fire and Water presented a communication from City Attorney Logan, relative to title to lots 5 and 6, in block 38—read and ordered filed.

The following bills were presented and ordered paid: S. J. McCormic, $12 75; Gas Light Company, $187 50; H. Boyd, $100 00; City Marshal and Deputies, $46 60; J. F. McCoy, $16 65; Columbia Engine Co., No. 3, $12 50. Bill of Wm. Dellinger for $18, referred to Committee on Fire and Water.

The City Marshal asked privilege of procuring lights for use of City Jail, and on motion of Mr. Holmes, was instructed to purchase the same at the expense of the city.

Mr. Risley offered a resolution of thanks to H. Boyd for the faithful and efficient manner in which he has discharged his duty as Clerk; adopted unanimously.

RESIGNED.—Mr. H. Boyd resigned his position as Clerk of the Board of Common Council of this city, last evening. We learn that it is his intention to go to Auburn, Powder river. Mr. Boyd has made an excellent clerk, and we are sorry to lose him as a citizen. May success attend him wherever he goes.

SICKNESS.—An unusual amount of sickness prevails at this time in our city, confined principally to children and youths. The prevailing disease is diptheria or malignant sore throat, which spreads throughout the city, very much like an epidemic; in fact, it is an epidemic which has already reached an alarming extent, and we would recommend to parents the importance of providing as far as possible against it, and pay immediate attention when first symptoms appear. Several deaths have already occurred, and we hear of many critical cases.

IN RECORDER'S COURT.—Hugh Kern was hauled up yesterday for drunken and disorderly conduct. Fined $5 and costs, and in default was sent to board at the city jail for three days.

GOOD TIME.—The stage arrived last evening at ten minutes past 3 o'clock. We received a telegraphic dispatch, but the news was one day behind the news received by the steamer Sierra Nevada. We shall expect later dispatches to-morrow evening.

COLD.—The days and nights for the last week have been quite cold, ice forming about ¼ inch thick. Not a drop of rain or snow has fallen for the last month or more. The days have been clear and bright.

SHOOTING GALLERY.—We dropped in at Campbell's Shooting Gallery, up stairs, near corner of Front and Morrison streets, last evening, and found quite a number of sporting gentlemen trying their sight at an automaton or image of a man, which we took to be Jeff. Davis,—"or some other man." Each individual appeared to be intent on seeing who could make the patient image raise its hat in acknowledgement of the driving of center, first. After a few moments observation, we came away, convinced that the centers of those who did the shooting were touched much more frequent than the center of the image shot at. However, all seemed to enjoy the sport, and this place of amusement must become a very fashionable and pleasant resort.

We refer our readers to the new advertisements in to-day's issue.

MULTNOMAH No. 2.—Regular meeting this evening at half-past six o'clock, precisely.

H. H BLACK,
DENTIST,
(Late from the Cincinnati College of Dentists,)
Office and Labratory, No. 10, Alder street, Four Doors from Front, Portland, Ogn.

HAVING secured the services of Dr. C. H. MACK, formerly of New York city, and late of St. Louis, who is an experienced and skillful Dentist, I am now prepared to manufacture and insert Artificial Teeth by the following methods, namely: GOLD, SILVER, RUBBER, AMBER, PORCELAIN BASE, GUM ENAMEL, RUBBER ATTACHMENT, CHEOLITE, CONTINUOUS GUM, MICA and ENAMELED PLATE WORK. Some kinds of this work is recommended above all others, and needs but an inspection to prove its superiority for cleanliness, durability and life-like appearance to any artificial teeth in use.

Filling and cleaning teeth, and all operations in Dental Surgery, either mechanical, operative or surgical, performed in the most thorough and highly finished manner. None but the most permanent and finished operations performed, and no inducements to patients by low priced or roughly finished operations. I use no cement in filling teeth, and seek in price to make no competition with cheap Dentists; and desire the patronage of such persons only as wish their operations performed in the most perfect and skillful manner.

Operations that fail to give satisfaction need not be taken or paid for. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. Indigent persons who are unable to pay full professional charges will call before and after office hours.

SEWING MACHINES
ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR
BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION
Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order; should make a TIGHT LOCK-STITCH, alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk directly from the spool, and to sew from course to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity; and should have a straight needle; curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer; should stitch, fell, run and gather; and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel-feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, nor ravel.

Admiral Porter's Mississippi River Flotilla and its Objects

The [illegible] is taken from the New York Herald [illegible]

Keeping the [illegible] and [illegible] at Vicksburg [illegible] Mississippi river since May last has been [illegible] our commerce [illegible] the [illegible] to the Gulf [illegible] Vicksburg [illegible] has continued [illegible] but [illegible] which only [illegible] vessels [illegible] pass and [illegible] is a dangerous [illegible] war [illegible] Vicksburg [illegible] below, are [illegible] wait for an [illegible] consequence [illegible] and New Orleans [illegible] all the internal [illegible] communications from point to point along the river are [illegible] interrupted

Gen Butler at New Orleans with [illegible] considerable army [illegible] and [illegible] of the white population of New Orleans to feed is necessarily subjected to [illegible] annoying extortions, inconveniences and embarrassments He sees [illegible] that while, even under a military order he [illegible] reduce the price of flour in New Orleans [illegible] dollars the barrel it is selling in St Louis for less than five, and with an unobstructed river could be delivered to him at six dollars And so with beef, pork and all other articles of subsistence He is paying twice or thrice the prices at which he could purchase them with an open river way to Cairo Nor is this all — While the rebels blockade the river at Vicksburg they are enabled at that point to bring over from Texas large amounts of supplies for the rebel armies in Mississippi and Alabama

The Government, fully apprised of all these disadvantages to us and advantages to the enemy from this state of things has resolved to put an end to it Accordingly Admiral David D. Porter has been appointed to the supreme command of our iron clad gunboats rams transports, etc, of the Mississippi, and with a flotilla of some sixty vessels of all descriptions, will soon move down the river to clear away all rebel obstructions [illegible] guerrillas, movable batteries and formidable works on the bluffs of Vicksburg These works will be the only impediments sufficient [illegible] delay the progress of more than one vessel but they may baffle the whole squadron, unless supported by a co operating land force Doubtless, however, when the attack is made upon Vicksburg, such a force will be employed, and probably it will be drawn from our army of Corinth, the splendid fighting soldiers of which seem to be as indifferent to the hottest fire as salamanders

The expedition of Admiral Porter, at all events, like that of the indomitable Farragut to New Orleans is organized and equipped for success. Its commander belongs to a salt water family whose achievements of distinction extend through half a century. With the arrival of the flotilla at New Orleans, the river will be completely reopened to trade, for Admiral Porter will have gunboats enough to enable one or more to pass every point along the stream from Vicksburg to Cairo once or twice a day Thus the superabundant provisions of the great West will find a hungry market at New Orleans for millions of supplies and thus the multitudes of soldiers, sailors, poor white inhabitants and contrabands dependent upon Gen Butler, will be abundantly supplied, to the saving of millions of dollars to the public treasury

Equally important in a military view, will be the complete separation thus effected between Missouri Arkansas Louisiana and Texas on the west from our rebellious States on the eastern side of the Mississippi The former will thus cut off from the chances of being reinforced from the rebel armies of the eastern side of the river, while the latter will be cut off from their Texas supplies of flour, corn and cattle Finally, when this great enterprise of Admiral Porter is accomplished, our naval forces, from Washington down to the sea, and thence along the coast to the Balize, and thence up the Mississippi and the Ohio to Parkersburg, in Virginia will almost completely encircle the rebellion

Voices of Animals.—There is a chapter in the natural history of animals that has hardly been touched upon as yet, and that will be especially interesting with [illegible] [illegible] a family that [illegible] not be mistaken All the canine [illegible] bark and howl The fox the wolf the dog [illegible] this [illegible] but [illegible] on a somewhat different pitch All the bears growl from the white bear of the Arctic snows to the small black bear of the Andes All the cats mew from our quiet fireside companion to the lions and tigers and panthers of the forest and jungle This last may seem a strange assertion; but to any one who has listened critically to their sounds and analyzed their voices, the roar of the lion is but a gigantic mew bearing about the same proportion to that of a cat as its stately and majestic form does to the smaller, softer, more peaceful aspect of the cat Yet, notwithstanding the difference in their size who can look at the lion, whether in his forest [illegible] or as he lies curled up in the corner of his cage or in his fiercer moments of hunger or of rage without being reminded of a cat? And this is not merely the resemblance of one carnivorous animal to another, for no one was ever reminded of a dog or a wolf by a lion Again all the horses and donkeys neigh, for the bray of the donkey is only a harsher neigh, pitched on a different key, it is true, but a sound of the same character, as the donkey himself is but a clumsy and dwarfish horse All the cows low, from the buffalo roaming the prairie the musk ox of the Arctic ice fields, or the jack of Asia, to the cattle feeding in our pastures Among the birds this similarity of voice in families is still more marked — We need only recall the harsh and noisy parrots, so similar in their peculiar utterance Or take, as an example, the web footed family Do not all the geese and the innumerable hosts of ducks quack?— Does not every member of the crow family caw, whether it be the jackdaw, the jay the magpie, the rook in some green rookery of the old world or the crow of our woods with its long, melancholy caw, that seems to make the silence and solitude deeper? Compare all the sweet warblers of the songster family—the nightingales the thrushes, the mocking birds, the robins—they differ in the greater or less perfection of their note, but the same kind of voice runs through the whole group.—Agassiz

In the attack upon Augusta Ky on the 27th ult, a young rebel was mortally wounded and taken to the house of the Rev Mr Thomas, a Union patriot The young man died that day, and some of his comrades were with him at the time Immediately after his death, the members of the family left the room for a few minutes, and they returned they were unutterably shocked to see his dead body lying perfectly naked upon the bed, his accomplices having stripped it of coat, vest breeches, boots and shirt, and left the house

Another young man fell mortally wounded, and after three hours was taken to a house His accomplices did not know that he would die, for even the surgeon could not at first say whether he would die or not And, if they assumed that he must die, they could not know how long he would live, what occasion he might have for the use of the property he had with him, or how much money he might need for medical attendance and nursing, to say nothing of funeral expenses Yet they robbed the poor fallen [illegible] of everything he had—a fine horse, a splendid rifle, a valuable pistol a costly signet ring upon his finger, upwards of a hundred dollars in money, and a pair of saddle-bags, filled with articles carefully prepared for his necessities They left him penniless, and utterly destitute among those that he and they had fought against — They stripped him of every thing but his clothes and would, no doubt, have stripped him of them, if they could have had access to his dead body, as they had to the corpse of the youth at the house of Mr Thomas.

TREATIES.

Convention between the United States of America and the Republic of Costa Rica for the adjustment of Claims Signed at San Jose July 2 1860. Ratified by the President of the United States November [illegible] 1861 Exchange of ratifications November 9, 1861 Proclaimed by the President of the United States, November 11, 1861

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas a convention for the adjustment of claims of citizens of the United States against the Republic of Costa Rica was concluded between the United States of America and that Republic, and was signed by their respective Plenipotentiaries at San Jose, on the second day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, which convention being in the English and Spanish languages is word for word, as follows

Convention for the adjustment of claims of citizens of the United States against the Government of the Republic of Costa Rica

The United States of America and the Republic of Costa Rica desiring to adjust the claims of citizens of said States against Costa Rica in such a manner [illegible] the good understanding and friendly relations now happily subsisting between the two Republics, have resolved to settle such claims [illegible] a convention and [illegible] that purpose appointed and conferred full powers, respectively to wit

The President of the United States on Alexander Dimitry [illegible] Minister Resident of said United States in the Republic of Costa Rica, and his Excellency the Constitutional President of said Republic of Costa Rica on Manuel José Carazo and Francisco María Yglesias, who upon an exchange of their [illegible] powers, which were found in good and proper form have agreed [illegible] the following articles:

Article I It is agreed that all claims of citizens of the United States upon the Government of Costa Rica arising from injuries to their persons or damages to their property under any form whatever through the action of authorities of the Republic of Costa Rica statements of which soliciting the interposition of the Government of the United States have been presented to the Department of State at Washington or to the diplomatic agent of said United States at San José Costa Rica up to the date of the signature of this convention, shall together with the documents in proof on which they may be founded be referred to a board of commissioners consisting of two members who shall be appointed in the following manner One by the Government of the United States of America and one by the Government of the Republic of Costa Rica Provided however that no claim of any citizen of the United States who may be proved to have been a belligerent during the occupation of Nicaragua by the troops of Costa Rica or the exercise of authority by the latter within the territory of the former shall be considered as one proper for the action of the board of commissioners herein provided for

In case of the death absence or incapacity of either commissioner [illegible] the [illegible] the President of the United States [illegible] the Republic of Costa Rica [illegible]

Article II The commissioners [illegible] at the city of Washington [illegible] from the exchange of the ratifications [illegible] and before proceeding to business [illegible] shall [illegible] [illegible] the claims [illegible] [illegible] the United States [illegible] the Republic of Costa Rica [illegible] both parties

Article III The umpire having been appointed the commissioners shall without delay proceed to examine and determine the claims which may be presented to them under the provisions of this convention by the Government of the United States as stated in the preceding article [illegible] shall hear, if required, one person [illegible] on behalf of each Government on every separate claim

Each Government shall furnish upon request of either of the commissioners such papers and [illegible] in its possession as may be deemed important to the just determination of any claims [illegible] referred to the board, under the provisions of the first article

In cases, whether touching injuries to the persons or [illegible] of any said citizens or damages committed, as stipulated in the first article [illegible] their property, in which the commissioners may agree to award an indemnity, they shall determine the amount to be paid In cases in which the commissioners cannot agree, the [illegible] be referred to the arbitrator, or umpire before whom each of the commissioners may be heard, and his decision shall be final

Article IV The commissioners shall [illegible] the [illegible] of the sums [illegible] respectively, whether by virtue of the awards agreed [illegible] between themselves or of those [illegible] in pursuance of decisions of the arbitrator [illegible] and the aggregate amount of all [illegible] by the certificates of award of the commissioners—in either manner [illegible] the sums [illegible] award as the arbitrator, or umpire, may, under the authority hereinafter conferred by the seventh article have made and issued, with the rate of interest stipulated in the present article in favor of any claimant, or claimants shall be paid to the Government of the United States, in the city of Washington, in equal semi annual instalments [illegible] however, hereby agreed, by the contracting parties that the payment of the first instalment shall be made eight months from the termination of the labors of the commission, and, after such first payment, the second, and each succeeding one shall be made semi annually, counting from the date of the first payment, and the whole payment of such aggregate amount or amounts, shall be perfected within the term of ten years from the termination of said commission, and each of said sums shall bear interest (also payable semi-annually) at the rate of six per cent per annum, from the day on which the awards, respectively, will have been decreed

To meet these payments, the government of the Republic of Costa Rica hereby specially appropriates fifty per cent of the net proceeds of the revenues, arising from the customs of the said Republic but if such appropriation should prove insufficient to make the payments as above stipulated the Government of said Republic binds itself to provide other means for that purpose

Article V The commission herein provided shall terminate its labors in nine months from and including the day of its organization They shall keep an accurate record of all their proceedings, and they may appoint a secretary, versed in the knowledge of the English and of the Spanish languages to assist in the transaction of their business And for the conduct of such business, they are hereby authorized to make all necessary and lawful rules

Article VI The proceedings of this commission shall be final and conclusive with respect to all the claims of citizens of the United States, which, having accrued prior to the date of this convention may be brought before it for adjustment and the United States agree forever to release the Government of the Republic of Costa Rica from any further accountability for claims which shall be rejected either by the board of commissioners or by the arbitrator, or umpire aforesaid, or for such as being allowed by either the board or the umpire, the Government of Costa Rica shall have provided for and satisfied in the manner agreed upon in the fourth article

Article VII In the event, however, that upon the termination of the labors of said commission stipulated for in the fifth article of this convention any case or cases should be pending before the umpire, and awaiting his decision, it is hereby understood and agreed by the two contracting parties that, though the board of commissioners may, by such limitation have terminated their action, said umpire is hereby authorized and empowered to proceed to make his decision or award in such case or cases pending as aforesaid, and upon his certificate thereof, in each case transmitted to each of the two Governments, mentioning the amount of indemnity, if such shall have been allowed by him, together with the rate of interest specified by the fourth article, such decision or award shall be taken and held to be binding and conclusive, and it shall work the same effect as though it had been made by both the commissioners under their own agreement or by them upon decision of the case or of the cases, respectively, pronounced by the umpire of said board, during the period prescribed for its sessions Provided, however, That a decision on every case that may be pending at the termination of the labors of the board shall be given by the umpire within sixty days from their final adjournment, and that at the expiration of the said sixty days the authority and power hereby granted to said umpire shall cease

Article VIII Each government shall pay its own commissioner but the umpire, as well as the incidental expenses of the commission including the defrayal of the services of a secretary who may be appointed under the fifth article shall be paid one half by the United States, and the other half by the Republic of Costa Rica

Article IX The present convention shall be approved and ratified by the President of the United States of America by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of the said States and by the President of the Republic of Costa Rica with the consent and approbation of the Supreme Legislative Power of said Republic and the ratifications shall be exchanged in the City of Washington within the space of eight months from the [illegible] the signature hereof or sooner if possible.

In faith whereof and by virtue of our respective full powers we the undersigned, have signed the present convention, in duplicate and have hereunto affixed our seals

Done at the city of San José on the [illegible] day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty and in the eighty fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America and the Independence of Costa Rica the [illegible]

ALEX'R DIMITRY [L S]
MANUEL J CARAZO [L S]
FRANC'O M YGLESIAS, [L S]

And whereas the said convention has been [illegible] ratified on both parts, and the respective ratifications of the same were exchanged at Washington on the 9th instant the time [illegible] for the [illegible] by the ninth article having [illegible] the contracting parties

Now therefore be it known that I ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States of America have caused the said convention to be made public to the end that the same and every clause and article thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed

Done at the City of Washington this eleventh day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty one and of the Independence of the United States the eighty sixth
